

ADD
ANDREWS

When Andrews was indicted for perjury, the allegedly perjurious statement or statements were not made public. The predictable one is his failure to identify Clay Shaw as the man he knew as Clay Bertrand, the man he had sworn to do as one of three things he was determined to do (the other two were to find the "mexicano" and the Presidential assassin).

A hint in anticipation of the fact appeared in the New Orleans "Times-Picayune" of March 12. Assistant District Attorney Richard Burns had released a copy of his March 6 letter to Andrews's attorney. It reads:
